Weekly portions and appointed feasts

Hear the Word of YHWH.
Walk in obedience.
Grow in the knowledge of Yeshua, our Redeemer.

HEAR AND DO MINISTRIES

10 October 2026 - 23 October 2027

HEAR | OBEY | WALK

A rhythm of hearing and doing

Read throughout the week

Begin the Torah portion early in the week and spread it across several days. Read the Prophets (Haftarah) and Messianic portion before the dated Shabbat. Use each checkbox to record completion.

Gather and reflect

On Shabbat, discuss what the passages reveal about YHWH, His covenant and redemption through Yeshua. Ask: What should I hear, obey and put into practice?

Walk through the reading cycle

Together, we will read through the Torah, with related passages from the Prophets and Messianic Writings. Our 2026 / 2027 cycle runs from 10 October 2026 to 23 October 2027 and includes three weeks devoted to feast study.

Find each passage in your Bible

Some Hebrew-numbered references differ from English Bibles, including Leviticus 5:26 and Hosea 14:10. Check the corresponding passage in your chosen translation so that you read the full portion.

Observe the appointed times

Our expected feast dates are based on anticipated new moons in Israel and may change with actual sightings. Begin observance at sunset on the previous day.

Study the feasts through Yeshua

During the feast-study weeks, we will read passages about the appointed times and consider their meaning in light of Yeshua, our Redeemer. Use these readings for personal reflection, family study and fellowship discussion.

Let us hear the Word, walk in obedience and grow together in Yeshua.

Study the appointments through Yeshua

Read Leviticus 23 alongside Luke 22:14-20, 1 Corinthians 5:7-8, 1 Corinthians 15:20-23, Acts 2:1-41 and John 7:37-39. Consider redemption, remembrance, obedience and the hope we have in Yeshua.
